THE PINKERTONS

Will Have Full Charge of the Inaugural Ball.

NO STEALING OR ROBBING IN WASHINGTON THIS YEAR.

Thousands of Strangers Pouring Into Washington—Ten Thousand Inaugural Ball Tickets Already Sold—The Inaugural Supper Will Consume all the Country's Cutch of Terrapin.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The committee in charge of the inaugural ball and reception has contracted with the Pinkerton Detective agency to supply officers to guard the reception and ball, as well as the city of Washington, during the inauguration.

Under the new arrangement any crooked man known anywhere in the United States will be placed under arrest as soon as he steps off the train in this city.

At every inauguration since Washington has been the scene of excitement attended upon such an occasion. The thieves flocked to Washington like flocks of geese to the south at the appearance of cold weather. They have had full sway in the city and at the inaugural ball, and notwithstanding the efforts of the police, stealing has gone on openly. This year the committee in charge of the ball opened up a correspondence with the Pinkerton agency, and the final arrangements have been made.

According to the agreement, Mr. Robert A. Pinkerton, superintendent of the eastern division of the agency, and his brother, Mr. William A. Pinkerton, of Chicago, will have full charge of the police at the ball, and while the crowd remains in the city. The officers selected will be from the Pinkerton staff at New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Kansas City, Brooklyn, Boston, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and St. Paul. With these men on hand it will be a difficult matter for any crook to appear openly on the streets of Washington.

Tickets to the ball will be sold exclusively by Pinkerton men, and a corps of the same detectives will take them up at the door, so it will be impossible for any improper person to obtain admission to the ball without being discovered. The ticket-sellers and handlers will be selected from the corps who every summer handle the tickets at the Manhattan Bay and Sheepshead Bay race tracks, which are guarded by Pinkerton's men, and in addition a number of men who are well acquainted with the smart people of the country will be stationed at the door and inside the hall, to point out people who may not be known to the doorkeepers.

Aside from this arrangement the Messrs. Pinkerton have closed a contract with Chief of Police William C. Moore to guard the city and hotels against the organized gangs of thieves and bunco men who flock here at every inauguration. Under the arrangement, which could not be bettered, there is little doubt that President Harrison's inauguration will be free from the evils that have attended so many others.

Ten Thousand Ball Tickets Sold.
WASHINGTON, March 4.—It is said that 10,000 tickets have been sold for the inaugural ball at $6 each. It is likely that 2,000 more will be issued. Negroes will be admitted, also white people of good or bad character. Nobody is excluded who will pay $5.

The Ohio headquarters is the Ebbitt house, and there Governor Foraker is located. He and Axline disappeared for an hour or so Friday, and it is stated that the governor was out in an open lot near the navy yard with the black stallion, testing his ability to stick on.

Excursion trains are pouring thousands of strangers into the city.

Terrapin Cornered.

PHILADELPHIA, March 4.—The terrapin market in Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore has been cornered. When the stewards of the various city clubs went to market to procure the delicacies for Sunday they were informed that there was not a terrapin in the city. Telegrams were sent to New York and Baltimore. The answer in both cases were the same: "Market was cornered for inauguration ball about three weeks ago."

George C. Boldt, who will provide the great supper, instructed his agent in this city sometime ago to purchase all the terrapin obtainable. The prices paid were high. As a result 1,700 large terrapin and 3,400 small specimens were contracted for. Friday evening they were boiled and picked. The amount made 250 gallons, which, at the retail price of $5 a quart, make $5,000 worth of this luxury for Harrison's admirers. Friday night a special train carried the terrapin to Washington.

Centennial of the First One.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The proof sketch of the invitation to the centennial anniversary of Washington's inaugural in this city next month, has been submitted by the designers. The invitation consists of six separate sheets on which are represented the great seal of the United States, the coat of arms of every state and territory, a picture of the landing of Washington at the foot of Wall street, likenesses of Chancellor Livingston, Governor Clinton and Mayor Duane as they appeared in 1789, pictures of St. Paul's church, Federal hall, the residence of Washington and members of the first congress in New York city, and other elaborate details, making the invitation a most beautiful souvenir.

The Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The following is the latest slate on the cabinet: Blaine, secretary of state; Windom, secretary of treasury; Noble, secretary of the interior; Proctor, secretary of war; Tracy, secretary of navy; Wauwauker, postmaster general; W. H. H. Miller, attorney general. For secretary of agriculture the chances seem to favor Rusk or Clarkson.

Lost Wealth Found.

CONNEERSVILLE, Ind., March 4.—Mrs. Hattie L. Chapin, a school teacher, and widow of Dr. Solomon Chapin, who moved to this city from Boston, Mass., about ten years ago, dying soon afterward, met with the favor of fortune Thursday in finding a lot of municipal bonds upon Oakland and Amboy, Ill., which had been purchased by her husband and have been mysteriously missing since. Her little girl, playing with an old trunk formerly used by Dr. Chapin in keeping his papers, had accidentally found the bonds between the side of the trunk and the lining. The bonds are valued at $12,000, and the family had long since given them up as lost.

DUN'S REVIEW.

Merchants Should be Satisfied With the Present Condition of Trade.

NEW YORK, March 4.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Traders who have been waiting through a belated season for the expected winter trade funds that it does not come, and spring has arrived. Hence there are on hand large stocks of unsold winter goods, which account for the tardiness of collections in many quarters, and for the general sense of disappointment. Though the trade of February, like that of January, has been rather larger on the whole than that of last year, it is not forgotten that business was unusually interrupted last year by storms, strikes and other impediments. But the outlook for the spring and the feeling of confidence as to the future are at least as favorable as a year ago, though in some departments the state of trade is at present unsatisfactory.

At fully half the interior points which report this week there is noted a fairly good trade or some improvement. Pittsburgh observes an advance of twenty-five cents in some kinds of pig iron, and a better inquiry for manufactured in many forms. Greater strength is also observed at Cleveland, where the trade of treasury is reckoning better than usual. Philadelphia notes most cautious dealing in dry goods on account of stock, heavy goods carried over. No change in wool, a firmer market for leather, and a slow market with tardy collections for drugs and chemicals. As to collections, Omaha alone reports improvement, though at Cleveland city collections are good, but the country is slow. At all other points tardiness is noticed.

The money markets are everywhere amply supplied for legitimate business, but the demand is moderate or light. While trade in dry goods here is considered larger for February than that of last year, the unusual caution of buyers continues and woolen cloths are without activity, while staple cottons are comparatively quiet.

COMMERCIAL UNION.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs Reports a Bill in Favor of It.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—In the house, on motion of Mr. Anderson, of Iowa, the joint resolution to promote commercial union with Canada was passed. This joint resolution was introduced by Hitt, of Illinois, and was reported unanimously from the committee on foreign affairs.

It provides that whenever it shall be duly certified to the president that the government of Canada has declared a desire to establish commercial union with the United States, having a uniform revenue system, like internal taxes to be collected and like import duties to be imposed on articles brought into either country by other nations, with no duty upon trade between the United States and Canada, he shall appoint three commissioners to meet those who may be likewise designated to represent the government of Canada, to prepare a plan for the assimilation of the import duties and internal revenue taxes of the two countries, and an equitable division of receipts, in a commercial union; and said commissioners shall report to the president, who shall lay the report before congress.

HE PLAYED GHOST

And in Consequence Got His Hide Filled With Buckshot.

CASEY, Iowa, March 4.—There is a little pond known as Silver lake, four miles west of here, and near it a school house in which the young folks of the neighborhood are wont to hold a lyeum. Recently a ghostlike apparition has caused nightly terror in the neighborhood. Several nights ago the apparition frightened a farmer's team, which ran away, tipped over the buggy and nearly killed the farmer's wife.

The husband procured a shotgun, loaded it with buckshot and then lay in wait for the ghost four nights. Thursday night he filled the ghost with buckshot. It cried: "My God, don't shoot any more," and fell prostrate. The ghost was carried home by the shooter and cared for. No one but the attending physician has seen him, and he refused to give any name. He is suspected to be a land seeker, who wished to scare the owners, and buy the adjoining land cheap.

Confession of a Young Rascal.

CORYDON, Ind., March 4.—In the circuit court Friday James and Charles Taylor and Isaac Leffler were sentenced to state prison one year for grand larceny. Leffler's two sons, aged eleven and fourteen years respectively, who were jointly indicted with their father, were sentenced to the house of refuge. The younger son made a confession, in which he said that he burned the residence of William Brewer last summer, and that he was hired to do so by the wife of Frank Roderick. Mrs. Roderick, the boy says, accused her husband of taking a certain young lady to Brewer's house for immoral purposes.

Thurman Elected President.

BALTIMORE, March 4.—The Republican National league Friday elected Judge Thurman, of Nebraska, president by acclamation and A. B. Humphrey for secretary.

Among the vice presidents are H. M. Washburn, Illinois; A. G. Porter, Indiana; George Denny, Jr., Kentucky; H. W. Carey, Michigan; George P. Kirby, Ohio; A. L. Bates, Pennsylvania; W. T. Oumly, Tennessee; George M. Fowler, West Virginia.

PIGOTT SUICIDES.

Remorse Evidently Causes Him to Take His Life.

THE ACT COMMITTED IN THE ANTE-ROOM OF A MADRID HOTEL.

He Assumes a Name the Initials of Which Correspond With His Own—The Report Creates a Sensation in London—The Czar Scandalized By His Brother's Actions—Other Foreign News.

MADRID, March 4.—An Englishman, supposed to be Richard Pigott, was arrested at the Hotel Des Ambassadeurs Friday under the name of Ronald Ponsonby. The man afterward committed suicide with a revolver. The description of the suicide corresponds with that of Pigott. The man spoke English only. A small amount of silver was found in his pockets. The police have taken possession of the papers and other articles found upon him.

He Took the Matter Calmly.

LONDON, March 4.—There seems to be no doubt that the "Ronald Ponsonby," who committed suicide in a hotel in Madrid, was Pigott. In assuming an alias he evidently chose a name whose initials would correspond with those on his baggage. No papers were found upon his person, but his description is identical with that of a man who called at the Hotel Deux Mondes in Paris, and left suddenly.

The Standard's Madrid dispatch says that when Pigott was arrested he took the matter calmly, and asked permission to retire to an ante-room to obtain his cloak. A moment later the sound of the pistol shot was heard, and on entering the room the officers found Pigott dead. He had shot himself in the mouth, dying instantly.

The report of Pigott's suicide at Madrid causes profound sensation here. Witnesses have been sent to formally identify the body supposed to be that of the forger. The police intend to hold Pigott's effects, pending an order from the court.

The Remains Identified.

LONDON, March 4.—Dispatches from Madrid confirm the report that the suicide of Friday was Pigott, there being no longer any doubt as to his identity. The English embassy officials have identified the body as that of Pigott. On Thursday the forger sent a telegram to Mr. Soames' office in London.

The message gave his address in Madrid, and probably from this telegram the government learned that Pigott was in Madrid. A note book containing the addresses of a number of people in Ireland was found on the body of the suicide.

War in Afghanistan.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 4.—The Afghan forces are advancing from Herat and the emir of Bokhara is preparing to attack them.

The Russian papers all adopt a warlike tone in commenting upon the situation.

The annex of Afghanistan claim border territory over which the emir has assumed control.

Russia is not likely to allow the opportunity to escape of seizing upon Herat, which has been described as the key to India.

If the war is prosecuted by the annex, who is England's trouble protege, it is likely to bring England and Russia again into diplomatic and possibly actual conflict. England will fight for the control of Herat.

The czar, for some mysterious reason, abandoned his proposed visit to the Crimea, although everything was prepared for it.

Mrs. Arthur Post Married.

LONDON, March 4.—It is unknown to her many American friends here that Mrs. Arthur Post was quietly married to A. H. Smith Barry, member of parliament, at St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, Friday morning. The only witnesses of the ceremony were near relatives of the bride and bridegroom at present in London. This will cause comment among the American colony when it becomes known.

The Czar Scandalized.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 4.—It is reported that the czar is scandalized by the irregular life of his brothers, and has ordered Grand Duke Vladimir to resign the commandship of the guards.

Foreign Notes.

The reports of the retirement of Count Von Waldersee are denied.

Court Bombolles, chief of the late Crown Prince Rudolph's household, has retired from the service. The emperor has bestowed upon him the Grand Cross of the Order of Leopold.

Mr. Marlebens celebrated the seventieth anniversary of his birthday Friday. Negotiations from all medical societies headed by Dr. Verchow, waited upon the doctor and congratulated him.

The minister of finance in the lower house of the diet Friday enclosing the budget said that the financial condition was favorable and would remain so if peace was maintained. He said that a bill would be introduced in the autumn dealing with the Galician land tax fund and also an income tax bill. He repelled the charge of fomenting strife between Germans and Bohemians.

THURMAN INTERVIEWED.

The Cabinet—President Cleveland Compliments—The Telephone Suit.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The Herald's Columbus correspondent telegraphs that Judge Thurman said Friday in an interview that he believes ex-Secretary Windom would be tendered the treasury portfolio; that he was Mr. Blaine's choice now as he was in the Garfield cabinet, and Gen. Harrison would favor Mr. Blaine by making the appointment.

Mr. Thurman compliments President Cleveland upon showing Gen. Harrison official courtesies and favors and says: "Mr. Cleveland is a thorough gentleman and knows how to do the handsome thing. He will do his duty to the close."

When asked about the telephone suit Judge Thurman said he had no important information to give. He intends to resign as counsel for the government as soon as the new administration is in working order.

WHOLESALE HYDROPHOBIA.

Many Affected Canines Being Slaughtered in Johnson County, Indiana.

COLUMBUS, Ind., March 4.—There is much excitement in White River township, Johnson county, over the wholesale outbreak of hydrophobia. A mad dog passed through that section about two weeks ago, biting a number of animals, among them several cattle belonging to a farmer named Sutton. The cattle were soon affected with the disease and were killed, and the carcasses placed in a huge pile and set on fire. The smell of the burning meat attracted dogs from the entire neighborhood, and they feasted on the carcasses all night. Nearly all the dogs in the township are now showing unmistakable signs of hydrophobia, and are all being killed. Much of the stock of the farmers in the vicinity has been bitten, causing many thousand dollars loss.

An exchange says: "The play is bright, whimsical and comical, and introduces a number of broadly, but cleverly-drawn characters that are very nicely sustained. Miss Josie Sisson, as the heroine, 'Little Nugget,' is pretty, full of vim and acts with more than cleverness. She also sings a number of songs with expression and good taste. James F. Green, as Barney O'Brady, a product of the 'Ould Dart,' greatly pleases the audience. He is very funny, as was also Sager Midgely, as Billy Simpkins. As Kumpfer, a German, Charles A. Loder makes quite a hit. The fun in 'Little Nugget' is of the kind to please."

There have been no severe cold spells, and the little snaps that did come were soon over. The normal average temperature for this latitude is 36.9°. The actual average temperature for the past winter was 36.2°, a little more than half a degree colder than the average. The normal temperature for February was 37.8°, while the month just closed shows a temperature of 32.2°, almost a freezing point all the way through. January was 2° warmer than usual, and December 1° warmer than the average.

FOUND IN A TREE.

The Secret of a Kentucky Farmer's Disappearance

REVEALED AFTER AN ELAPSE OF SIXTEEN YEARS.

His Son in Felling a Hollow Tree Recently Discovers the Skeleton of His Father Entombed Therein, Where He is Supposed to Have Met His Death While 'Coon Hunting.

HARRISBURG, Ky., March 4.—Near the village of Mackville, in Washington county, in 1873, a man of irreproachable morals named Simpson mysteriously disappeared. He was not known to have enemies, his domestic relations were peculiarly happy, his habits were of such a character as to preclude the idea of suicide, and he passed away as completely as if the earth had opened and swallowed him up.

A few days since the son of the missing man felled a tree with his ax on the estate, the boy having grown to manhood since his father had left home. The tree in falling was shattered at a hollow above the stump, and the bones of a full-grown male skeleton were scattered around the trunk of the tree. Every one in the vicinity except the widow believes that the skeleton is that of John Simpson.

The length of the bones correspond to the height of the man, and his habits seem to make the theory rational, for Simpson was accustomed to going out at night to hunt racoons and opossums. It is remembered by his family that at the time of his disappearance he had gone out by himself, and that at about midnight the dogs set up a howling that awoke Mrs. Simpson.

The next morning a colored man, accompanied by the little son (now the man who felled the tree), went in search of the father and followed the dogs to the tree, and, notwithstanding they kept up the barking, nothing could be seen up the tree, nor could any noise be heard. The hollow in the tree out of which the bones fell was barely large enough to hold a man of medium size, and when once in there was no possible chance of escape.

So it is thought by the neighbors that Simpson must have fallen into the aperture headfirst, and died before his son and the colored man were led to the tree next morning by the dogs. The wife, on the contrary, has never abandoned the hope of seeing her husband alive, and at the time of his disappearance, when the people were dragging Chinle river, she had no idea of their finding his body.

UMBERGER'S MURDERERS.

A Trail in the Snow Leads to a Young Woman's Arrest.

LIGONIER, Pa., March 4.—Chief of Police Harris, of Johnstown, and a posse of deputies arrested Callins Hamilton on the mountain, four miles east of here, about 2 o'clock Friday morning on suspicion of having been one of the parties who brutally murdered Herman Umlerger in his home last Wednesday night near Jennerstown, Pa. Young Hamilton is about twenty-six years of age, and was living with his two aunts at the toll-gate on the pike.

The murderers were traced over the snow in the direction of Hamilton's house, which led to the arrest. He offered no resistance when arrested. He was in bed, and under the pillow was found two revolvers. The officers also secured the false whiskers and a brown derby hat which Old Mrs. Umlerger describes. Hamilton was placed under arrest and handcuffed, and will be taken to Jennerstown, where he will be given a hearing before Squire Fanch. Other important arrests will likely follow.

RIVALS THAT OF '49.

The Excitement Caused by the Gold Discoveries in Lower California.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—Dispatches from San Diego say that authentic accounts of rich gold finds at Escondido are creating extraordinary excitement. By this morning's steamer from Lower California there arrived $5,000,000 worth of gold dust and nuggets. Every steamer bound out is loaded to the guards with old miners and new prospectors. The latest news from Escondido is to the effect that the place is deserted by the people, who have gone to the mines.

It is impossible to obtain a conveyance of any sort in town and there is scarcely a pound of bacon to be found. Old miners who have been in California since the bustling days of '49 say that the find is probably the richest ever discovered on the Pacific coast. The region where the gold has been discovered is about eighteen miles long by twenty broad. There is plenty of running water there yet and it will last for months.

Lamont Buys a House at Port Chester.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Port Chester people are agitated over the report that President Cleveland has purchased the Augustus Abendroth mansion in that town. The sale of the mansion and grounds, containing forty acres, was made to Col. Daniel Lamont Thursday afternoon. He had looked at the place a few days ago, and since then negotiations had been pending. The price is unknown. Col. Lamont gave orders Thursday, it is said, to have the place put in order for immediate use. It is the general impression among Port Chester people that the President will occupy it, and not Col. Lamont. If Mr. Cleveland has determined on a suburban residence, it is doubtful done to the fact that he realizes the embarrassment which would result from a city residence in regard to his future political affiliations. He would be called upon to decide between Tammany Hall and the County Democracy, with the chances in favor of the latter.

Serious Accident to a Student.

FRANKLIN, Ind., March 4.—Alva Neal, a student, while making a chemical experiment in the Franklin college laboratory, met with an accident. A retort containing a very strong solution of sulphuric acid exploded, and Neal was terribly burned about the face and neck. Fortunately the eye sight may have escaped injury.

Efforts of Chewing Gum.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 4.—Mrs. Isaac Kaufman, of Morristown, this county, likes to chew gum, and she chewed so much yesterday that the muscles of her face became paralyzed. The family sent for the services of a physician before she could open her mouth.

CANADA'S DEFENSES.

The Dominion Parliament Urged to Strengthen Them on the Pacific Coast.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 4.—In the senate Friday Hon. Mr. McInnes, of British Columbia, drew the attention of the government to the necessity of urging the imperial government to construct proposed defenses on the Pacific coast. Three years have gone by since the admiralty sent a party of engineers to survey sites, but nothing has been done so far. Mr. McInnes drew attention to the war cloud hanging over Europe. The Russians, he said, were enlarging their arsenal at Vladivostok, opposite British Columbia.

Hon. Mr. Abbott, government leader in the senate, replied at length, saying it had not yet been decided where to erect batteries in the neighborhood of Esquimaux.

Negotiations between the imperial and Canadian governments respecting the preparations for armaments were confidential, and they were proceeding satisfactorily. Mr. McInnes then drew the attention of the government to the necessity of defending the other points on the Pacific coast.

ACCIDENT TO EDISON.

His Face Badly Burned by the Explosion of a Chemical.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Thomas A. Edison met with a severe accident, of which the facts have just leaked out, despite the efforts of the laboratory employes to suppress them. He was engaged in making a chemical analysis, adding a strong acid solution to the substance under investigation, when, without the slightest warning, the mass exploded.

The flames flashed up in his face, singeing his eyebrows and scorching his hair. Some of the acid struck him on the face and eyes, and caused severe and painful burns. With great presence of mind Mr. Edison plunged his face in a basin of water and prevented serious injuries; as it was, his face and eyes were much inflamed and extremely painful on Sunday, but since then he has steadily improved, and now shows but little trace of the accident. Those familiar with the facts say that he had a narrow escape from losing his eye sight.

"Ben Hur" Staged.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 4.—The great spectacular presentation of Gen. Wallace's "Ben Hur" was given Thursday night before a large and intelligent audience, with its author with them, in Music hall. The magnificent scenery and costumes have been prepared, under the direction of Gen. Wallace, by D. W. Cox & Company, managers. The readings were presented by Mrs. Lida Hood Talbot, of Chicago, with great effect before each tableau. There are twelve tableaux presented, with gardens, groves, desert scenes and some of the most thrilling incidents and striking passages of "Ben Hur." It is booked for Greenacres, Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Cincinnati for one week.

Fighting the Binding Twine Trust.

MASON CITY, Iowa, March 4.—The farmers of Iowa are preparing to fight the binding twine trust. The price of twine has increased from twelve cents to eighteen cents within four years, and agents for the manufacturers have been notified that twenty cents will be demanded this season. To avoid paying this high price leading farmers are going among their fellows soliciting signatures to a pledge that none of them will use twine the next harvest if the high price is maintained. The pledges are being extensively signed, and the farmers appear determined to compel the trust to yield by a universal boycott.

The indefinite postponement of a bill pertaining to liquor license was recommended by a committee. A resolution was offered to suspend the sentence of Representative Linck and reduce his fine.

Labor Law Violated.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., March 4.—J. J. Grace, of Troy, superintendent of the treasury department, is at Suspension Bridge investigating the violation of the Allen contract labor act. The collector of customs at that port has made complaint that a large number of Canadians are employed by the railroads and various companies doing business on the American side, and that these people have their residence in Canada. This is in direct violation of the law, and the collector threatens to put the matter in the United States district attorney's hands for prosecution. He gives those violating the law until March 10 to come within its prescribed limits.

Water Opposition to Railroads.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 4.—The Transcontinental association having to reduce the rate on canal goods, local shippers have chartered a vessel, and will send an amount equal to three hundred carloads of canal goods around Cape Horn to New York. The ships' rates are fifty-five cents per hundred, which, added to rail rates to Chicago, twenty-five cents, will place the goods on the market in the latter city at seventy-seven cents a hundred, exclusive of wharfage, insurance, etc.
